- 25X1 7. On 31 January, the Schuetzen Kaserne was entered by 20 to 22 x 132-mm rocket launchers [redacted] 40 to 45 trucks, 3 tank trucks, 3 field kitchens and 350 to 400 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. Boxes and equipment were loaded onto the trucks. The vehicles and troops had come from the direction of Angermuender Strasse. [redacted]
- 25X1 8. On 4 February, 10 converted boxcars, 1 boxcar and 21 flatcars from Unit Opazin, Forst Zinna, were unloaded at the Dallgow railroad station. Ten 57-mm AT guns, 15 to 20 trucks and about 180 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were observed. On 4 February, 2 boxcars to Fuerstenberg/Havel were loaded at the Dallgow railroad station with military goods [redacted] which had been hauled to the station on trucks [redacted]
- 25X1 1. [redacted] Comment. On 31 January, headquarters units of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army and units of the 6th Gds Mecz Div returned presumably from short-term combat firing practices at the Templin troop training grounds. [redacted]
- 25X1 [redacted] According to the weapons, the field exercises were also attended by units of the 240th Gds Mort Regt and of the 17th Gds Mecz Regt of the division and of the 312th Gds RL Regt of the army. On the whole, the occupation of Eberswalde post does not seem to have been changed. [redacted]
- 25X1 2. [redacted] Comment. Compare with the last report of mid-January 1953. [redacted]
- 25X1 3. [redacted] Comment. On 3 February 1953, units returned to the Eberswalde post, presumably from Templin. According to railroad records, the units had been transferred to Eberswalde [redacted] on 2 February. Another report stated that the first tanks were unloaded in Templin on 18 January. These were the first indications as to the beginning of field exercises at this troop training grounds. [redacted]
- 25X1 [redacted] it is assumed that the loadings on 6 February 1953 were made by elements of the 3d Engr Regt of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army. The regiment engaged in loading activity in Eberswalde on 17 January, presumably for practices in the Muellrose area. [redacted]
- 25X1 4. [redacted] Comment. According to several reports by the same and other sources, the AT artillery unit Opazin, a unit of the 1st Mecz Div, had been loaded for shipment to Forst Zinna on 1 February 1953. [redacted] confirms the Hq 1st Mecz Div in Doeberitz until 4 February 1953.
